

Psalm 009

HRN_233_120609

09 June 2012

2nd Fret

Travis Pick

A messianic psalm of David--He praises the Lord for rebuking the nations--The Lord will judge the world in righteousness--He will dwell in Zion--The wicked will be sent to hell.

To the chief Musician upon Muth-labben, A Psalm of David.

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1. I will praise thee, O Lord,
C D G
With my whole heart;
C D G
I will shew forth
C D G
All thy marvellous works. 2. I will be glad and rejoice in thee:
D E A D E A
I will sing praise to thy name,
D E A
O thou most High.
C D G 3. When mine enemies
C D G
Are turned back,
C D G
They shall fall and perish
C D G
At thy presence.
D E A 4. For thou hast maintained
D E A
My right and my cause;
D E A
Thou satest in
D E A
The throne judging right.
C D G 5. Thou hast rebuked the heathen,
C D G
Thou hast destroyed the wicked,
C D G
Thou hast put out
C D G
Their name for ever and ever.
D E A 6. O thou enemy, | D E A
Destructions are come to a perpetual end:
D E A
And thou hast destroyed cities;
D E A
Their memorial is perished with them. 7. But the Lord
C D G
Shall endure for ever:
C D G
He hath prepared his throne
C D G
For judgment.
D E A 8. And he shall judge the world
D E A
In righteousness,
D E A
He shall minister judgment
D E A
To the people in uprightness.
C D G 9. The Lord also will be
C D G
A refuge for the oppressed,
C D G
A refuge
C D G
In times of trouble. |
|---|--|

10. D E A
And they that know thy name
D E A
Will put their trust in thee:
D E A
For thou, Lord, hast not forsaken
D E A
Them that seek thee.
11. C D G
Sing praises to the Lord,
C D G
Which dwelleth in Zion:
C D G
Declare among the people
C D G
His doings.
12. D E A
When he maketh inquisition for blood,
D E A
He remembereth them:
D E A
He forgetteth not
D E A
The cry of the humble.
C D G
13. C D G
Have mercy upon me, O Lord;
C D G
Consider my trouble which I suffer
C D G
Of them that hate me,
C D G
Thou that liftest me up from the gates of death:
D E A
14. D E A
That I may shew forth
D E A
All thy praise in the gates
D E A
Of the daughter of Zion:
D E A
I will rejoice in thy salvation.
C D G
15. C D G
The heathen are sunk down
C D G
In the pit that they made:
C D G
- In the net which they hid
C D G
Is their own foot taken.
16. D E A
The Lord is known by
D E A
The judgment which he executeth:
D E A
The wicked is snared in the work
D E A
Of his own hands.
C D G
17. C D G
The wicked
C D G
Shall be turned into hell,
C D G
And all the nations
C D G
That forget God.
D E A
18. D E A
For the needy
D E A
Shall not always be forgotten:
D E A
The expectation of the poor
D E A
Shall not perish for ever.
C D G
19. C D G
Arise, O Lord;
C D G
Let not man prevail:
C D G
Let the heathen be judged
C D G
In thy sight.
D E A
20. D E A
Put them in fear, O Lord:
D E A
That the nations may know
D E A
Themselves to be but men. :|2x
D E A
Selah.