A messianic psalm of David--He tells of the glory of the great King--The King will triumph over all His enemies--Their evil designs will fail.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

1.           G                           C
The king shall joy in thy strength, O Lord
          D                           G
And in thy salvation how greatly shall he rejoice!
2.           G                           C
Thou hast given him his heart's desire
          D                           G
And hast not withholden the request of his lips
3.           C                           G
For thou preventest him with the blessings of goodness
          Am                           G
Thou settest a crown of pure gold on his head
4.           C                           G
He asked life of thee, and thou gavest it him
          Am                           G
Even length of days for ever and ever
5.           G                           C
His glory is great in thy salvation
          D                           G
Honour and majesty hast thou laid upon him
6.           G                           C
For thou hast made him most blessed for ever
          D                           G
Thou hast made him exceeding glad with thy countenance

7.           C                   G
For the king trusteth in the Lord
          Am                                   G
And through the mercy of the most High he shall not be moved
8.           C                   G
Thine hand shall find out all thine enemies
          Am                                   G
Thy right hand shall find out those that hate thee
9.           G                   C
Thou shalt make them as a fiery oven
D                   G
In the time of thine anger
          G                                   C
The Lord shall swallow them up in his wrath
          D                   G
And the fire shall devour them
10.          C                   G
Their fruit shalt thou destroy from the earth
          Am                                   G
And their seed from among the children of men.
11.          C                   G
For they intended evil against thee
          Am                                   G
They imagined a mischievous device
- G                   C
Which they are not able to perform
D                   G
12.       Therefore shalt thou make them turn their back
G                                   C
When thou shalt make ready thine arrows
          D                                   G
Upon thy strings against the face of them
13.          C                   G
Be thou exalted, Lord, in thine own strength
Am                                   G
So will we sing and praise thy power
          C                                   G
1.           C                   G
The king shall joy in thy strength, O Lord
          Am                                   G
And in thy salvation how greatly shall he rejoice!
