The Lord is righteous--Let those be confounded who hate Zion.A Song of degrees.

1. F G F G
 Many a time have they afflicted me
 F G C
 From my youth
 F G C
 May Israel now say:

2. F G F G
 Many a time have they afflicted me
 F G C
 From my youth
 F G F G
 Yet they have not
 F G C
 Prevailed against me

| C F G C
 | 3. The plowers plowed upon my back
 | C F G C
 | They made long their furrows
 | C F G C

| 4. The Lord is righteous
 | C F G C
 | He hath cut asunder the cords of the wicked

5. F G F G
 Let them all be confounded
 F G C
 And turned back that hate Zion

6. F G F G
 Let them be as the grass upon the housetops
 F G C
 Which withereth afore it groweth up

| C F G C
 | 7. Wherewith the mower filleth not his hand
 | C F G C
 | Nor he that bindeth sheaves his bosom
 | C F G C

| 8. Neither do they which go by say
 | C F G C
 | The blessing of the Lord be upon you

F G F G |
 We bless you in the name |
 F G C |
