

004_Business---322_Psalm_131

HRN

18 April 1998

0 Fret

Travis Pick

G F G F G F G
 C1. One person sowing, Planting seeds for someday
 G F G F G F G
 Two people reaping, Harvesting from yesterday

C F G F
 1. Business starts with an idea planted
 C F G F
 In your heart nourished and vetted
 C F G F C F C
 It's an art we should not soon forget

G F G F G F G
 C2. Three people working, Moving matter for someday
 G F G F G F G
 Four people resting, On hills built yesterday

C F G F
 2. Business is sometimes a trade, an occupation
 C F G F
 It has devolved into a single profession
 C F G F C F C
 Sometimes it's called a partnership, or a corporation

C3. G F G F G F G
 Five people building, A structure for someday
 G F G F G F G
 Six people using, Offices from yesterday

3. C F G F
 Business involves commerce and manufacturing
 C F G F
 It requires purchasing and selling
 C F G F C F C
 For a profit rightfully earning

C4. G F G F G F G
 Seven people staging, A plan for someday
 G F G F G F G
 Eight people serviced, By projects yesterday

4. C F G F
 Business encompasses our time and creativity
 C F G F
 Distracting us from church and family
 C F G F C F C
 With things which we can't take to eternity

C5. G F G F G F G
 Nine people sowing, Good words for someday
 G F G F G F G
 Ten people reaping, Blessings from yesterday

5. C F G F
 Business becomes a field colored white
 C F G F
 With harvesters reaping everything in sight
 C F G F C F C
 Preparing our worlds to be lifted to a new height

C6. G F G F G F G
 Eleven people kneel with thanks for today
 G F G F G F G
 Resolving to cooperate starting this day