

054_The_Wooden_Shoe

Quentin Reed & Roice Nelson

19 May 1973

0 Fret

1,2,3 Pick Choruses & Travis Pick Verses

D D^{+C} D^{+B} A⁷
 D D^{+C} D^{+B} A⁷
 D D^{+C} D^{+B} D^{+Bb} A⁷ D

1. D G
 Once I lived in a nursery rhyme
 A D
 Never aware of the sands of time
 D G
 I went there with some friends of mine
 A D
 We didn't know what we would find

2. D G
 We stayed there in a wooden shoe
 A D
 Learning poems that we turned into
 D G
 I'm sure you've heard a rhyme or two
 A D
 That came out of that wooden shoe

C1. D D^{+C} D^{+B} A⁷
 Mary, Mary, quite contrary
 D D^{+C} D^{+B} A⁷
 How does your garden grow
 D D^{+C} D^{+B} D^{+Bb}
 With silver bells and cockle shells
 A⁷ D
 And pretty maids all in a row

3. D G
 Little tin soldiers taught us marching songs
 A D
 Happy rag dolls would dance along
 D G
 Down the road we marched in style
 A D
 Until we'd gone a crooked mile

D D^{+C} D^{+B} A⁷
 D D^{+C} D^{+B} D^{+Bb} A⁷ D -->

4. D G
 We went along a mountain ridge
 A D
 Until we came upon a bridge
 D G
 But the unicorn told us we must not cross
 A D
 Or else our childhood would be lost

C2. D D^{+C} D^{+B} A⁷
 London Bridge is falling down
 D D^{+C} D^{+B} A⁷
 Falling down, Falling down
 D D^{+C} D^{+B} D^{+Bb}
 London Bridge is falling down
 A⁷ D
 My Fair Lady

5. D G
 Late that night while the unicorn slept
 A D
 I crossed the bridge, big tears I wept
 D G
 I'd grown too big for the wooden shoe
 A D
 And the sad thing is it will happen to you

6. D G
 But I no longer do despair
 A D
 I watch my children playing there
 D G
 Marching with dolls like I used to do
 A D
 When I lived in the wooden shoe

C3. D D^{+C} D^{+B} A⁷
 Rock-a-bye baby in the tree top
 D D^{+C} D^{+B} A⁷
 When the wind blows, the cradle will rock
 D D^{+C} D^{+B} D^{+Bb}
 When the bough breaks the cradle will fall
 A⁷ D
 And down will come baby, cradle and all