- V1.           G       F       G       F
Take my hand, I promise I'll understand
G                   F       G                   F
There's so much to learn, I don't know which way to turn
- C1.           C           Dm                   Am           G
Show me a mountain top that's capped white with snow
C                   Dm                   Am           G
Where the sun shines down on me, to show me where to go
- V2.           G       F       G           F
Open my eyes, that I might see who I am
G       F       G                   F
And realize, what's in store if I do all I can
- C2.           C       Dm                   Am           G
Like the blossoms budding in the spring of the year
C           Dm                   Am           G
When life begins again, and brings to me a tear
- V3.           G           F       G       F
As days pass by, Help me to learn to live
G           F       G       F
With a love that abides, so I may always give
- C3.           C           Dm           Am           G
Comfort to others, like a green carpeted hill
C           Dm           Am           G
Strength and a purpose that is quiet and is still
- V4.           G           F           G       F
As the seasons turn to years, may I overcome my fears
G   F           G           F
And learn of thee, And what thou wants me to be
- C4.           C           Dm                   Am           G
That I may help when others have trouble and strife
C           Dm                   Am           G
And learn to share myself past the autumn of my life
- V5.           G       F       G           F
Take my hand, I promise I'll understand
G       F       G           F       G
Take my hand, I promise I'll understand
