

165_Feed_Yourself_First

HRN

24 August 2011

2nd Fret

Travis Pick

- C            F            B<sup>b</sup>        B C
 C.1. Tough economic times, Feed yourself first
 C            F            B<sup>b</sup>        B C
 When you must pinch dimes, Feed yourself first
 C            F            B<sup>b</sup>        B C
 No one listens to your whines, Feed yourself first
 C            F            B<sup>b</sup>        B C
 Otherwise find deathly chimes, Feed yourself first
- C            F
 1. The issue is my friend
 G            C
 Stress makes me fat
 C            F
 Looking towards the end
 G            C
 Is where I want to be at
- C            F            B<sup>b</sup>        B C
 C.2. Challenges come with life, Feed yourself second
 C            F            B<sup>b</sup>        B C
 Relationships are full of strife, Feed yourself second
 C            F            B<sup>b</sup>        B C
 No one loves you like your wife, Feed yourself second
 C            F            B<sup>b</sup>        B C
 Take time to listen to the fife, Feed yourself second
- C            F
 2. Maybe we will learn
 G            C
 Service is key
 C            F
 Maybe we can discern
 G            C
 What will be
- C            F            B<sup>b</sup>        B C
 C.3. Consider the lilies of the field, Feed yourself last
 C            F            B<sup>b</sup>        B C
 Exceeding what Solomon's glory did yield, Feed yourself last
 C            F            B<sup>b</sup>        B C
 Righteousness is the ultimate shield, Feed yourself last
 C            F            B<sup>b</sup>        B C
 Providing service that we might be sealed, Feed yourself last
 B<sup>b</sup>        B C
 Feed yourself last