| 1. A G A G
He was once a friend of mine
A G A G
And I thought he was so fine
A G A G
Full of love and always kind
A G A G
Helping others, taking time | 4. A G A G
He was always fulfilling his duty
A G A G
Never letting himself get moody
A G A G
Diligent even if sooty
A G A G
Like the hero in a movie |
| C. C G F G
Then I noticed, he's getting older
C G F G
He's no longer a young soldier
C G F G
He's much more careful and movin' slower
C G F G C
Somewhat colder, and still bolder than most | 5. A G A G
Responsibilities drove his life
A G A G
Always supportive of his wife
A G A G
Striving to avoid strife
A G A G
He once defended her with a knife |
| 2. A G A G
He was always obedient
A G A G
Sometimes to a fault
A G A G
Others saw it an impediment
A G A G
Not recognizing he was their salt | 6. A G A G
Never faced an ethical dilemma
A G A G
Not caught up in dogma
A G A G
Did as taught by his mamma
A G A G
Followed Christ, Buddah, and Allah |
| 3. A G A G
He was doing what feels good
A G A G
Always doing the best he could
A G A G
Thinking it was what he should do
A G A G
If he could do better he would do | 7. A G A G
Morality was his line in the sand
A G A G
Never followed a reckless band
A G A G
Nor beyond what's natural to expand
A G A G
Simple concepts to understand |
