Yankee Meadows is a delight
A E
A place at a great height
A D
Where we learn of light and right
E A
On a fathers and sons camp overnight | 5. | A E
Dale Simper was very quiet
A E
Until Michael talked about guns
A D
As young boys ran around with
E A
A femur and a jawbone |
| 1. | A E
Klaus Mans went up a day early
A E
To save the campsite
A D
He put out signs to show the way
E A
And waited for the party | 6. | A E
Kelin Bleazard and his son Karsen
A E
Flew their large drone
A D
Eyes wide open mouths agape
E A
Realizing he could peer in our window |
| 2. | A E
Dustyn Johnson took Cole fishing
A E
At the lake's inlet
A D
Soon he was throwing rock into
E A
The stream and eating all the cookies | 7. | A E
Roice Nelson sang James a song
A E
About a father's and son's campout
A D
Father's chasing sons on a grassy knoll
E A
Because they were getting older |
| 3. | A E
James Froyd cooked bacon hamburgers
A E
With all kinds of fixings
A D
They were gone before we knew it
E A
Filling up our tummies | 8. | A E
Bishop Jeffrey Orton bore testimony
A E
Of the restoration of the priesthood
A D
While little boys played with the fire
E A
Hopefully absorbing truths eternal |
| 4. | A E
Michael Barrick telling stories
A E
About fireworks falling over
A D
Shooting at his neighbor's in their yard
E A
Thankfully no one went to the Doctor | 9. | A E
Brock Jensen cooked breakfast
A E
Representing the Elder's Quorum
A D
After being woken up
E A
By the sound of my car alarm |
