1. C G
There are only two kinds of men in this world
F G
Honest Men and Dishonest Men
C G
There are black men and white men
 F G
And yellow men and red men
F G
But nothing counts except whether they're
F G C
Honest Men or Dishonest Men
- C. C G
Some men work almost entirely with their brains
F G
Some almost entirely with their hands
F G
Though most of us have to use both
F G
But we all fall into two classes
F G C
Honest Men and Dishonest Men
2. C G
Any man who says the world owes him a living is
F G F G
Dishonest, for the same God that made you and me made this earth and
F G F G
He planned it so that it would yield every single thing that people on it need
F G F G
But he was careful to plan it so that it would only yield up its wealth in exchange for
F G
The labor of a man. Any man who tries to share that wealth
F G C
Without contributing the work of his brain or his hands is dishonest
3. C G
Son, this is a long sermon for a boy of your age
F G
But I want so much for you to be an honest man
F G C
That I had to explain it to you
