David seeks to control his tongue--Man is altogether vanity--He is a stranger and a sojourner on the earth. To the chief Musician, even to Jeduthun, A Psalm of David.

1. C F B^b B C
I said, I will take heed to my ways, that I sin not with my tongue
C F B^b B C
I will keep my mouth with a bridle, while the wicked is before me
C F
2. C F
I was dumb with silence, I held my peace
B^b B C
Even from good; and my sorrow was stirred
3. F C G C
My heart was hot within me, while I was musing the fire burned
F C G C
Then spake I with my tongue
4. C F B^b B C
Lord, make me to know mine end, and the measure of my days
C F B^b B C
What it is; that I may know how frail I am
C F B^b B C
5. C F B^b B C
Behold, thou hast made my days as an handbreadth
F C G C
And mine age is as nothing before thee
F C G C
Verily every man at his best state is altogether vanity
6. C F B^b B C
Surely every man walketh in a vain shew
C F B^b B C
Surely they are disquieted in vain: he heapeth up riches
C F B^b B C
And knoweth not who shall gather them

7. F C G C
And now, Lord, what wait I for? My hope is in thee
F C G C
8. Deliver me from all my transgressions: make me not the reproach of the foolish
9. C F B^b B C
I was dumb, I opened not my mouth
C F B^b B C
Because thou didst it
10. C F B^b B C
Remove thy stroke away from me: I am consumed by the blow of thine hand
11. F C G C
When thou with rebukes dost correct man for iniquity
F C G C
Thou makest his beauty to consume away like a moth
12. C F
Surely every man is vanity
B^b B C
Hear my prayer, O Lord
- C F B^b B C
And give ear unto my cry; hold not thy peace at my tears
C F B^b B C
For I am a stranger with thee, and a sojourner, as all my fathers were
13. F C G C
O spare me, that I may recover strength
F C G C
Before I go hence, and be no more
