| 1. Blessed be the Lord my strength,Which teacheth my hands to war,And my fingers to fight:  | 10. It is he that giveth salvation unto kings:Who delivereth David his servantFrom the hurtful sword.  |
| 2. My goodness, and my fortress;My high tower, and my deliverer;My shield, and he in whom I trust;Who subdueth my people under me. | 11. Rid me, and deliver me from the handOf strange children, whose mouth speaketh vanity,And their right hand is a right hand of falsehood:          |
| 3. Lord, what is man,That thou takest knowledge of him!Or the son of man, That thou makest account of him!                              | 12. That our sons may be as plantsGrown up in their youth;That our daughters may be as corner stones,Polished after the similitude of a palace: |
| 4. Man is like to vanity:His days are as a shadow that passeth away.   | 13. That our garners may be full,Affording all manner of store:That our sheep may bring forthThousands and ten thousands in our streets:        |
| 5. Bow thy heavens, O Lord, And come down:Touch the mountains, And they shall smoke.   | 14. That our oxen may be strong to labour;That there be no breaking in, Nor going outThat there be no complaining in our streets.                    |
| 6. Cast forth lightning, And scatter them:Shoot out thine arrows, And destroythem.  | 15. Happy is that people,That is in such a case:Yea, happy is that people,Whose God is the Lord. :  2x  |
| 7. Send thine hand from above;Rid me, and deliver me out of great waters,From the hand of strange children;                             |   |
| 8. Whose mouth speaketh vanity, And their right handIs a right hand of falsehood.  |   |
