D-
1. While walking through a field of snow, the sun slipped through the wind that blew
D⁷ D⁷⁻ A
The snow and clouds, in front of me, there was someone waiting there
C G F E
The sunlight played upon her hair, and sparkled in the snow that flew around her

D
2. Glancing up she saw me coming
D-
Running, soon we were embracing
D⁷ D⁷⁻
Thoughts returning to what seemed so long ago
A
Looking in her clear blue eyes
C
They reflect the view of the depths of sea
G F E
And yet she seemed as spacious as the sky ___ above

C
C. Maybe it's the wind surrounding
G
Or the sun and snow glistening
D E
It must be the reunion
C
Maybe it's the time that past
G
Or to hear her sigh at last
D E
It must be more than just reunion

D
3. Walking hand in hand together
D-
We make our way through nasty weather
D⁷ D⁷⁻
Sent it seems to keep us from each other
A
I listen to the whisper
C
As it slips between her lips
G F E
To form the phrase that means so much ___ to me
