

082_Gene's_Beijing_Blues

HRN - Zhoxian, China

26 April 1987

0 Fret

Travis Pick

A^m D C G

C: A^m G D A^m
I've got the Beijing City blues
A^m G F A^m
Too much Mao Tai, Not enough you
A^m G D A^m
Third world traffic, No use to gripe
A^m G F A^m
After all, for dinner, there's plenty of tripe

1. D C B^m G
It all started when I barely got on the plane
D C B^m D
Strapped between two drunks and a baby in pain
G C D G
Checking-in in Tokyo, found the visa to be wrong
A^m D B^m C
It was for Taiwan, instead of where we're going
A^m D C G
I'm going to kill Marti Berryman when I get home

2. D C B^m G
After twenty-six hours tied to a chair
D C B^m D
And arguing with passport control, we're almost there
G C D G
Fighting swarms of taxi cabs, We choose one open to the air
A^m D B^m C
Soon we're on our way to Shangri-La's lair
A^m D C G
Planning 'till 3 for a 9 o'clock meeting someplace elsewhere

3. D C B^m G
At eleven o'clock we find the meeting is in Zhou Xian
D C B^m D
Leaving with warm laundry less a bottle of cologne
G C D G
The two hours in the taxicab, almost gave me a heart attack
A^m D B^m C
Dodging girls falling off bicycles passing donkey carts
A^m D C G
In the face of a 10 ton truck, that's not going to stop