1           C                   G
And the Spirit said unto me:
          F                   C
"Behold, what desirest thou?"<sup>1</sup>
          C                   G
And I said: "I only desire to see
          F                   C
What my father saw."<sup>2</sup>
          C                   G
The Spirit said unto me:
          F                                   C
"Believest thou that thy father saw the tree?"<sup>3</sup>
          C                   G
"Thou knowest I believe all the words
          F                   C
My father saith unto me."<sup>4</sup>

C           D                   A
The Spirit cried with a loud voice
          G                   D
"Hosanna to the Lord
          D                   A
For He is the most high God
          G                   D
Over all the earth."
          D                   A
"Blessed art thou, Nephi,
          G                                   D
Because you believe in the Son
          D                   A
Wherefore, you shalt behold
          G                   D
The life of God's chosen one"<sup>5</sup>

2 C G
The Spirit said unto me:
F C
"Look!" And I beheld a tree;
C G
With beauty beyond all beauty;
F C
Pure whiteness shining on me<sup>6</sup>
C G
Seeking the interpretation
F C
I was shown a fair white virgin<sup>7</sup>
C G
The mother of the Son of God<sup>8</sup>
F C
Holding the love of God<sup>9</sup>

C D A
The Spirit cried with a loud voice
G D
"Hosanna to the Lord
D A
For He is the most high God
G D
Over all the earth."
D A
"Blessed art thou, Nephi,
G D
Because you believe in the Son
D A
Wherefore, you shalt behold
G D
The life of God's chosen one"<sup>10</sup>

3 C G
The spirit said unto me:
F C
"Look!" And I beheld the Son of God
C G
Many fell down and worshiped him<sup>11</sup>
F C
For his word is the iron rod<sup>12</sup>
