

156 Reflections on Life

HRN

17 August 2010 notes chorus 19 August 2010 words chorus and notes &amp; words verses

0 Fret

Travis Pick

C.  $A^m$   $A^m$
 Life is a complex game, Full of joy and of pain
 $A^m$   $A^m$  E  $A^m$
 Hopefully we all gain, Knowledge of the truth
 $G^m$   $G^m$
 Taking a step back, Learning what not to pack
 $G^m$   $G^m$  D  $G^m$
 As we fill our life's sack, With service and love

3. C D G  $E^m$
 Thought I was ready to be a father
 C D G  $E^m$
 Little did I know how children can bother
 C D G  $E^m$
 Church service, career, and one another
 C D G  $E^m$
 Still I became an author

1. C D G  $E^m$
 Started out as my Mom's Pride and joy
 C D G  $E^m$
 The first of two, a girl and a boy
 C D G  $E^m$
 Quickly graduating from playing with toys
 C D G  $E^m$
 Quiet and insecure and somewhat coy

4. C D G  $E^m$
 Success came too quick and left just as fast
 C D G  $E^m$
 Touring the world was such a blast
 C D G  $E^m$
 Missed kids growing up, now I long for the past
 C D G  $E^m$
 Thinking about what really lasts

2. C D G  $E^m$
 Matured as a missionary serving in England
 C D G  $E^m$
 Learned how to interact, a dishwater blonde
 C D G  $E^m$
 Better than college or playing in the band
 C D G  $E^m$
 In regards to work or lending a hand

5. C D G E
 Starting all over again and again
 C D G  $E^m$
 Nervous and scared when it's time to begin
 C D G  $E^m$
 Optimistic that I am not forsaken
 C D G  $E^m$
 Believing from bad dreams I'll soon awaken