346 Hatch, Match, and Dispatch*

HRN *Based on comment by Brother Webb, Rachael William's brother, at her funeral 02 February 2015 2nd Fret Travis pick

F С G C 1. Today was both sad and joyous G C С Rachael William's funeral celebration F С G С Women in black, men in ties F С G Am Children not knowing their turn will come

С G D G C: We meet new friends at least three times G C D G When we hatch, match, and dispatch C G D G Happy are the times when life rhymes D G C G With a full batch, a good catch, the right time to unlatch

F С G С 2. Decades ago there were times happy and sad F С G Am Rachael was born in nineteen forty-nine С G F С One of ten kids who could be both good and bad С G Am She walked the line and was always kind

F С G С 3. After his mission Dave looked for Rachael F С G Am She was afraid he wouldn't like what he found F С С G Brandon, Kurt, Amy, Marie, Shane, Suzanne, & Michelle F С G Am Prove he did know they're all celestial bound

F С G С 4. Cancer is one of life's lemons F С G Am It takes real faith to make lemonade С С G Rachael showed her girls what real women do G Am С Unwavering kindness and hope as life fades

С G D G C: We meet new friends at least three times D G С G When we hatch, match, and dispatch С G D G Happy are the times when life rhymes D G С G With a full batch, a good catch, the right time to unlatch

F С G С 5. No one truly knows what the future holds F С G Am Some things make us sad and some things make us glad F С G C And yet this can always be said as life unfolds С G Am Kindness, love, hope, and service never make us mad