HRN III Nephi 20:34-46

3rd Fret

34           A       E       G       D
Then shall they break forth into joy

Sing together, ye waste places of Jerusalem
C       G       F                   G
For the Father hath comforted his people
C       G       F G C
He hath redeemed Jerusalem

35           A       E       G       D
The Father hath made bare his holy arm
A       E       G       D
In the eyes of all the nation
C       G       F       G
And all the ends of the earth
C       G       F       G       C
Shall see the salvation of the Father
C       G                   F G C
And the Father and I are one

36           A       E       G       D
And then shall be brought to pass
A       E       G       D
That which is written
C       G                   F       G
Awake, awake again, and put on thy strength
C       G       F                   G C
O Zion; put on thy beautiful garments

A       E                   G       D
O Jerusalem, the holy city
A       E                   G       D
For henceforth there shall no more
C       G F G
Come into thee
C       G                   F       G       C
The uncircumcised and the unclean

37           A       E       G       D
Shake thyself from the dust
A       E                   G       D
Arise, sit down, O Jerusalem
C       G       F                   G
Loose thyself from the bands of thy neck
C       G                   F G C
O captive daughter of Zion

38           A       E       G       D
For thus saith the Lord
A       E                   G       D
Ye have sold yourselves for naught
C       G       F       G
And ye shall be redeemed
C       G       F G C
Without money

39           A       E       G       D
Verily, verily, I say unto you
A       E                   G       D
My people shall know my name
C       G       F                   G
Yea, in that day they shall know
C       G                   F G C
I am he that doth speak

40.           A       E       G       D
And then shall they say
A       E       G       D
How beautiful upon the mountains
C       G       F       G
Are the feet of him that
C       G                   F G C
Bringeth good tidings unto them

A       E       G       D
That publisheth peace
A       E                   G       D
That bringeth good tidings unto them of good
C       G       F       G
That publisheth salvation
C       G                   F G       C
That saith unto Zion: Thy God reigneth!

41.           A       E       G       D
And then shall a cry go forth
A       E       G       D
Depart ye, depart ye
C       G       F       G
Go ye out from thence
C       G                   F G C
Touch not that which is unclean

A       E       G       D
Go ye out of the midst of her
A       E                   G       D
Be ye clean that bear the vessels of the Lord
C       G       F       G
For ye shall not go out
C       G                   F G C
With haste nor go by flight

43           A       E       G       D
For the Lord will go before you
A       E                   G       D
And the God of Israel shall be your rearward
C       G                   F       G
Behold, my servant shall deal prudently
C       G                   F       G       C
He shall be exalted and extolled and be very high

44 A E G D
As many were astonished at thee
A E G D
His visage was so marred
C G F G
More than any man
C G F G C
And his form more than the sons of men

45 A E G D
So shall he sprinkle many nations
A E G D
The kings shall shut their mouths at him
C G F G
For that which had not been told them shall they see
C G F G C
And that which they had not heard shall they consider

46. A E G D
Verily, verily, I say unto you
A E G D
All these things shall surely come
C G F G
Even as the Father hath commanded me
C G F G C
Then shall this covenant

A E G D
Which the Father hath covenanted
A E G D
With his people be fulfilled
C G F G
And then shall Jerusalem be inhabited again
C G F G C
With my people

C G F G C
And it shall be the land of their inheritance
