Quick to give Grandpa and Grandma
A hug when they came to town
For the Annual Nelson Grandkid's Science Camp
The first of ten in Texas

Avalyn's hair was braided
Red tips flowing from her helmet

The Cave Without a Name
Pretty up and down rocks
Music echoing in reflection pools

We went to the Guadalupe River
Where Avalyn jumped off a big rock
Climbing a tree to swing and jump in the water

Today we learned some history
At the Alamo not too far from here
Jets overhead remind us we are not part of Mexico
Thanks to those who died at the Alamo
