

429_Lauren_Rachel_Waldron

HRN

05 March 21 written on my i-Pad

0 Fret

Strum

1.           G     F         G
Lauren Rachel Waldron
G     F         G
Life can be a cauldron
G     F         G
Full of fire and brimstone
G             F         G
Testing what we should own
- C.           C             G         F
Then comes the day like today
C     G     F
When we get to say
C             G     F
It will really be OK
      C             G         F
No matter what others may say
2.           G             F         G
Last night we went for Mexican
G             F         G
You really didn't want to go there
G             F         G
You wanted a hamburger instead
G             F         G
But the nachos turned out just fine
3.           G     F         G
Lauren Rachel Waldron
G     F         G
Today was your baptism
G     F         G
You were only baptized twice
G     F         G
Getting the ordinance just right
4.           G     F         G
Lauren Rachel Waldron
G     F         G
The Holy Ghost is a gift
G     F         G
That will always be with you
G             F             G
Providing fire, comfort, and warning
5.           G     F         G
Lauren Rachel Waldron
G     F         G
The Italian food was just fine
G     F         G
Spaghetti noodles and cheese
G             F         G
Providing you energy and glee
6.           G     F         G
Lauren Rachel Waldron
G             F         G
You were set to go to Bush Gardens
G     F         G
At eight years old you were going
G             F         G
To drive yourself if you had to
7.           G     F         G
Lauren Rachel Waldron
G             F         G
We ended up at Adventure Land
G     F         G
Hiking and going on a Zip Line
G             F         G
Aren't you glad for the memories